

We know we can't meet face to face at the moment but there are lots of ways you can volunteer with Give a Book and PRG to develop experience and skills and help us spread the pleasure of reading where it is needed most.

Create Bookstuff handouts

These are regular book-related handouts for distribution in prisons, with trivia, poems, short stories and quizzes.

Create Book Talk resources

Suggest books and make accompanying resources for remote prison reading groups.

Write a blog for us

Got a book related blog idea? Want to share the pleasure of reading? Write a blog for our website.

Make a fundraiser for us

There are lots of online ideas for fundraising; a birthday donation page, a virtual readathon...even a remote half-marathon!

Illustration/design

We would love keen designers and illustrators to create images we can use on our resources and website.

Research funding and project opportunities

Help us identify possible funders and new recipients for our support.

Or something else?

Have you got particular skills or experience you think you could use to develop a new volunteering idea with Give a Book? We are always keen to hear new ideas if you would like to volunteer with us.
