The Invisible Man

by H.G. Wells

Number of pages: 144

The Invisible Man is the story of a brilliant scientist who makes himself invisible. This new power cuts him off from society and forces him to flee his home and city. Eventually he loses his mind and begins tormenting the residents of a local village.

The Invisible Man has been adapted into multiple films. H.G. Wells is also known for sci-fi stories including The Time Machine, War of the Worlds and The Island of Doctor Moreau.

We recommend this book if you enjoyed Frankenstein by Mary Shelley, Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson or The Midwich Cuckoos by John Wyndham.

Discussion Questions:

1. What do you think motivated Griffin (the invisible scientist) at different points throughout the book?

2. Do you think humour made the storytelling style more interesting?

3. Do you think the book's narrator is sympathetic towards Griffin?

4. Do you think there is a moral to the story?

5. What would you do if you were invisible for one day?
