

Book Talk

We Solve Murders

by Richard Osman

Number of pages: 460

Retired police officer and widower Steve Wheeler is settled into his routine in a New Forest village. His daughter-in-law Amy works for a private security firm and is currently protecting world-famous novelist Rosie D'Antonio.

When Amy is framed for a murder, Steve is pulled out of retirement to clear her name. The characters travel around the world using their combined skills and very British humour to solve the case.

We recommend this book if you enjoyed The Thursday Murder Club series by Richard Osman, or Agatha Christie books.

Discussion Questions:

1. Were you surprised by who the murderer was?
2. If you guessed who the murderer was, what gave it away?

3. Which was your favourite location in the book?
4. Do you prefer a quiet routine like Steve, or more excitement like Amy?
5. Which actors would you cast if you made a film of the story?
6. Which characters would you like to see return for the next book?
